

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA
SAVANNAH DIVISION

HERBERT BATTISE, III,

Plaintiff,

v.

U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION,

Defendant.

CIVIL ACTION NO.: 4:24-cv-49

ORDER

This matter is before the Court on Defendant's Motion to Dismiss, (doc. 8), and Plaintiff's subsequently-filed Motion for Leave to File First Amended Complaint, (doc. 24). For the reasons set forth below, the Court DENIES as moot Defendant's Motion to Dismiss, (doc. 8), and DENIES as moot Plaintiff's Motion for Leave to File First Amended Complaint, (doc. 24).

On or about January 29, 2024, Plaintiff filed his initial complaint initiating this action against U.S. Bank National Association.<sup>1</sup> (Doc. 1-1.) In the original complaint, which was just over two pages in length, Plaintiff asserted claims challenging the validity of a home equity loan, sought, inter alia, the return of $19,534.82 in allegedly fraudulent charges, and sought damages of up to $15,413,812.62. (Id.) Defendant filed a Motion to Dismiss for failure to state a claim. (Doc. 8.)

When Plaintiff, who is proceeding pro se, failed to respond to the Motion to Dismiss, the Court entered an Order directing him, within twenty-one days, to either file a response to the Motion to Dismiss or file an amended complaint curing any deficiencies noted in the Motion to Dismiss. (Doc. 18, p. 2 (citing Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a)(1)(B)).)

Twenty-four days after the entry of the Order, Plaintiff filed his “Motion for Leave to File First Amended Complaint,” which is a hybrid document in that the motion and the first amended complaint are both contained within the same document. (Doc. 24). This new iteration of the complaint is much lengthier than the original; it now contains more than fifteen pages of allegations and claims, including entirely new causes of action as well as new claims against an individual (Greg Stein) who was not implicated in the original complaint. (See generally id.)

Because the Court’s Order preemptively provided Plaintiff leave to file an Amended Complaint, it was not necessary for Plaintiff to file the motion for leave if the amended complaint was filed within the deadline set by the Court. Here, although the Court’s stated deadline was twenty-one days after the entry of the Order and Plaintiff’s filing was not received and docketed until twenty-four days after the entry of the Order, the filing was timely in light of Plaintiff’s pro se status.<sup>2</sup> Accordingly, the Court construes Plaintiff’s Motion for Leave to File an Amended Complaint, which contained his desired amended pleading, as a timely-filed First Amended Complaint. As such, the Court DENIES as moot Plaintiff’s Motion for Leave to File an Amended Complaint, (doc. 24), and DIRECTS the Clerk of Court to AMEND the docket and record of this case to reflect that the filing at Docket Number 24 is Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint, filed on February 21, 2024.

Under black letter federal law, "an amended complaint supersedes the initial complaint and becomes the operative pleading in the case." Lowery v. Ala. Power. Co., 483 F.3d 1184, 1219 (11th Cir. 2007) (citations omitted). This means that "the original pleading is abandoned by amendment and is no longer a part of the pleader's averments against his adversary." Dresdner Bank AG v. M/V Olympia Voyager, 463 F.3d 1210, 1215 (11th Cir. 2006) (citation omitted). An amended complaint thus "renders [the original] of no legal effect." Arce v. Walker, 139 F.3d 329, 332 n.4 (2d Cir. 1998) (citation omitted); see also Hoefling v. City of Miami, 811 F.3d 1271, 1277 (11th Cir. 2016) (initial filing "bec[o]mes a legal nullity"). To be sure, however, an original complaint would still have legal effect if "the amendment specifically refers to or adopts the earlier pleading." Varnes v. Local 91, Glass Bottle Blowers Ass'n, 674 F.2d 1365, 1370 n.6 (11th Cir. 1982) (citation omitted). An amended complaint that does not incorporate the prior pleading, therefore, moots "the motion to dismiss the original complaint because the motion seeks to dismiss a pleading that has been superseded." Wimberly v. Broome, No. 6:15-CV-23, 2016 WL 3264346, at *1 (S.D. Ga. Mar. 29, 2016) (collecting cases).

The Court has reviewed Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint, which specifically states that Plaintiff is amending his complaint "to clarify existing claims, add new claims,<sup>3</sup> and join additional parties who are necessary for the just adjudication of this matter." (See doc. 24, pp. 2–3.) As such, Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint is the sole operative pleading in this case and renders moot Defendant's Motion, which sought to dispose of claims asserted in the original complaint on the ground that Plaintiff had failed to sufficiently state any claims upon which relief could be granted to him, (doc. 8). Accordingly, the Court DENIES as moot Defendant's Motion to Dismiss. (Id.)
